NEW YEAR SERMON FROM TRIPOD.

Gratification For The Manifold Blessings and Exhortation to Push Forward.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR KICKERS.

With our next issue a New Year will have been ushered in. The Daily News takes this opportunity to wish all its readers, all its well wishers and the public in general a happy and a prosperous New Year. The most of us have much to be thankful for in the year just gone; generally health has been good, we have lived comfortably, we have been blessed with good friends and in most instances have added to our stock and store. It could have been so much worse.

This is a season when it is well to take a retrospective view of the past year or years, and get our bearings. We can review our mistakes and short-comings and try to profit by them; by a comparison of the situation of a year ago with the situation today we can the better forecast the year ahead of us and prepare for its duties and responsibilities. And while this is an opportune occasion to do so, we must not lose sight of the fact that things are done, work accomplished only to the extent of our activity; it behooves us therefore to be ever on the alert, to be active in season and out of season, to take such energetic action as will bring things to pass.

That we have one of the most beautiful and all-round attractive cities in all the Southland there is abundant testimony and evidence; it can not stand still, it must go forward to better things, to greater achievements or it must lag and go back. Sad the day and pity for Daytonians if reverses ever should come so long as we have the proper spirit, city pride, and talk and pull for our city she will surge ahead.

Let us have no croakers, no "grouchers," banish that "tired feeling;" if you are suffering from "Hoodoo germs" get fumigated; if afflicted with the "down-and-out" bacillus get a bacillus-killing massage; if afflicted with chronic grumbling go sit in the sun parlor and let nature's blessed purifier beam effluently upon you.

"You're deceived
If you think fortune comes
With a rattle of drums
And a fanfare of state
To banish you on plate.
That isn't the way
That she visits today.
You must get out and tussle,
You will need all your muscle
For you've got to hustle.
Plunge into the fight,
Hit to left and to right,
And keep crashing and smashing.
Stop all that bawling—
Instead, do some mauling.
It makes the world blither
To look at a quitter;
Fate scowls when she sees
A grown-up on his knees."

More sawyers and less bawlers, more who can march in better time to a quick step than to a funeral dirge, is what Daytona wants, and what she must.

SOUTHERN ITALY A HOSPITAL.

Drowned and Half Incinerated Bodies Strew the Southern Coast Country.

EARTHQUAKE HORROR GROWS.

[By United Press.]

ROME, Dec. 31.—Foreigners at Messina and Reggio and other destroyed towns, who have not yet been heard from, are, in all probability dead, according to a statement made today.

Thousands of inquiries have been sent to authorities on the scene, who have made every effort to locate persons sought for, but comparatively few have been found.

Hundreds of bodies will never be recovered—many are incinerated in the ruins; while others have been washed away by the sea.

Probably the closest estimate yet made will not come within 10,000 of the actual number dead in Southern Italy and the north coast of Sicily.

There are 100,000 persons who need hospital treatment.

The railway station at Messina, where many people gathered after the first shock, hoping to escape by train, was uncovered today revealing scores of corpses packed together.

NO DAILY NEWS PUBLISHED TOMORROW.

Postoffice, Merchants Bank and Stores Closed All or Nearly All Day.

Everybody is planning for a good time tomorrow and the Daily News will join the merry throng and take the day off, so you will not hear the familiar piping voice of the carrier boy announcing his arrival at your door.

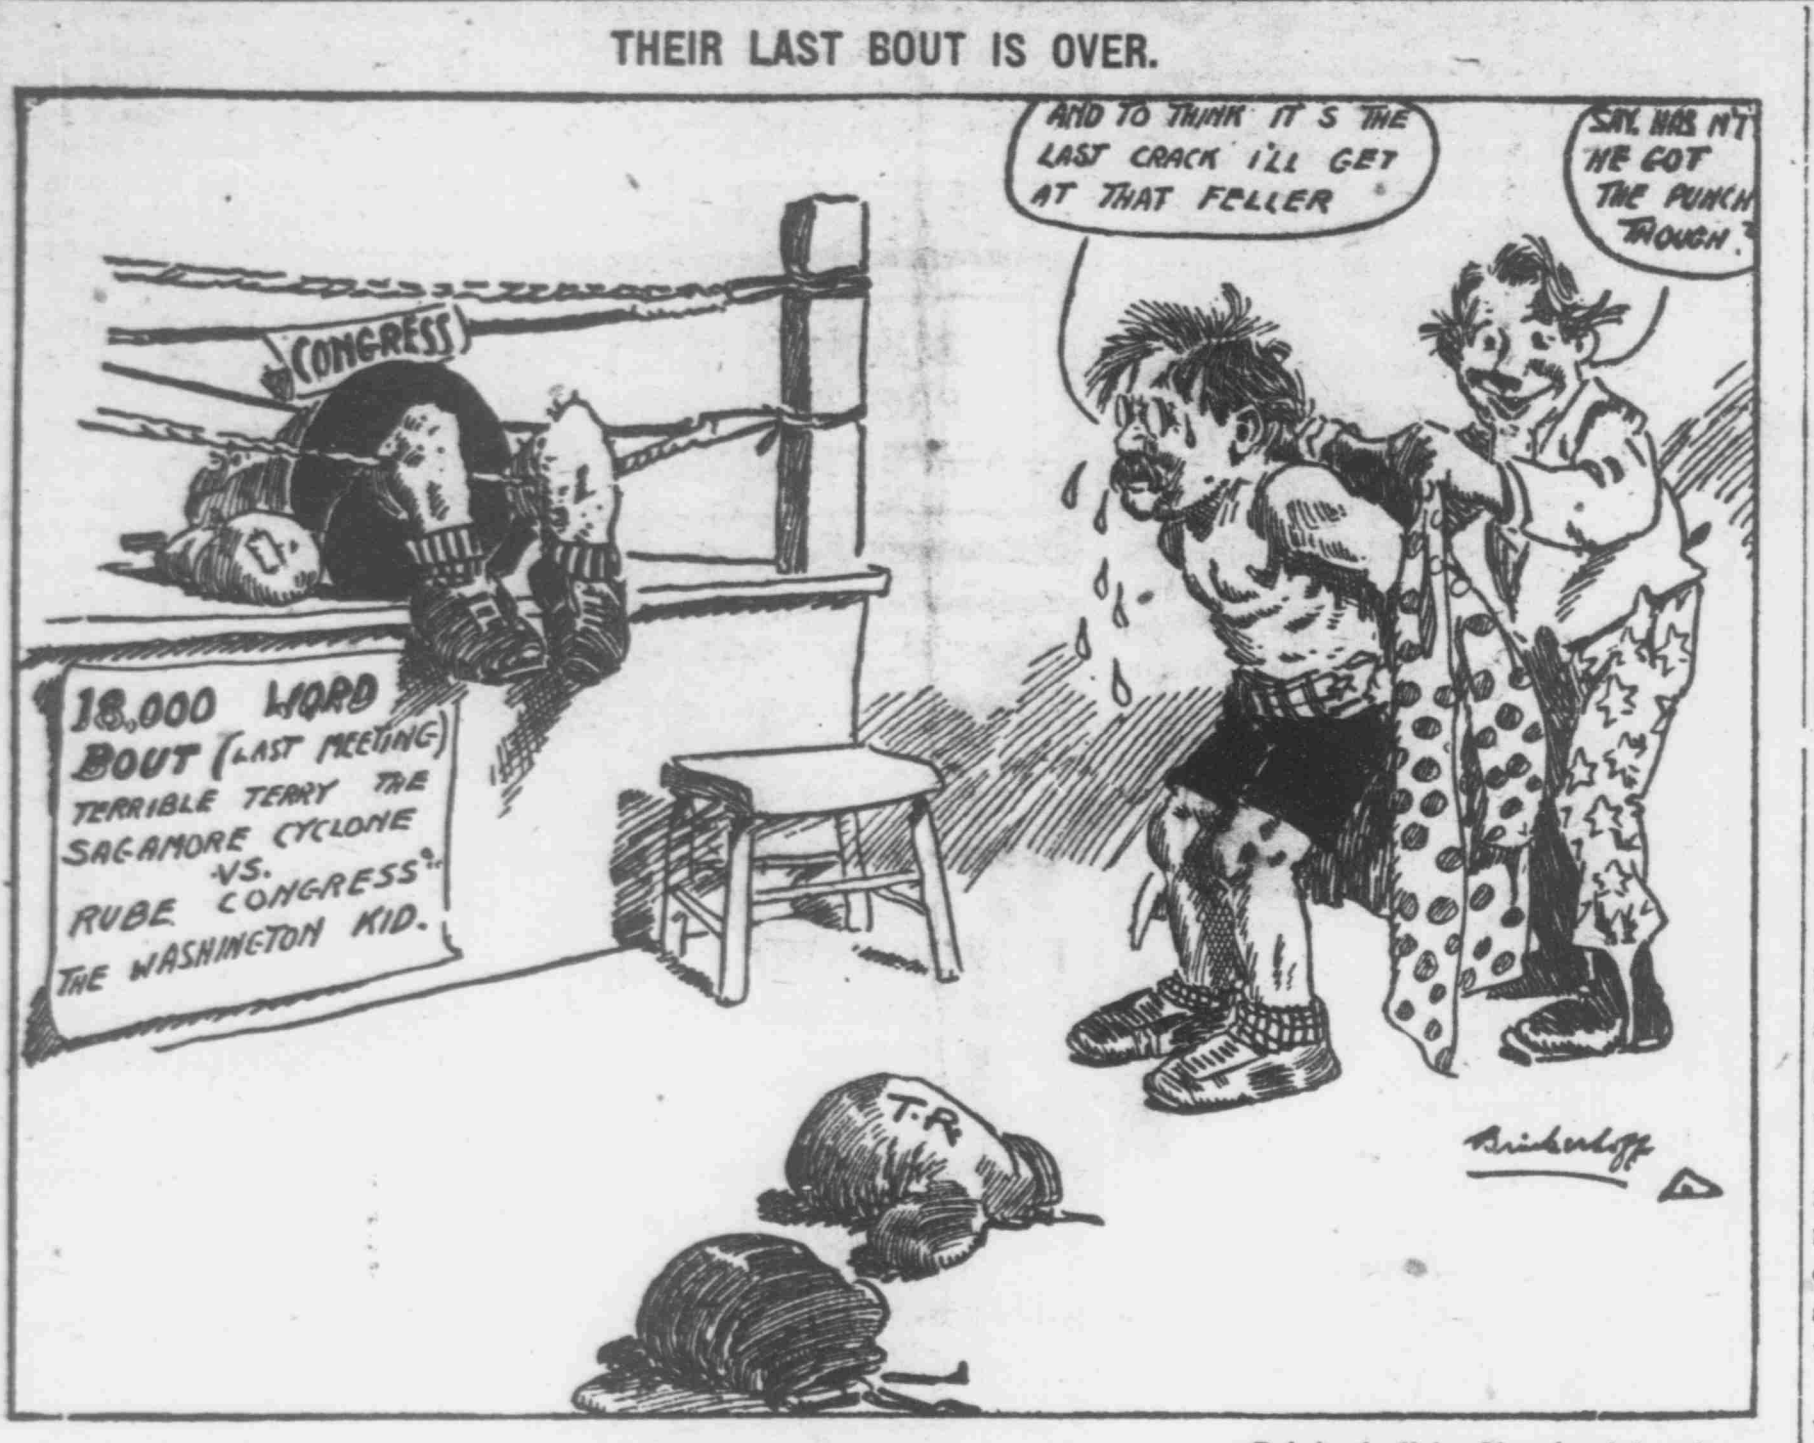

The Merchants Bank will not open its doors at all, the postoffice only from 2:30 to 3:30 p. m., the stores will in the main stay closed, and everything and everybody will be in holiday attire and holiday spirit.

The hotels are preparing elaborate menu cards and those who do not go out feasting their eyes and ears upon the picturesque local scenery may go to one of the many hotels and feast upon the good things which will be spread upon the festal boards.

Many little excursions have been planned and if the elements smile propitiously a goodly number of folk will hit themselves to the jungles of the Tomoka. Some will automobile south to New Smyrna, others will content themselves on the beach by runs to Ormond and to Ponce Park.

Rod and reel enthusiasts are overhauling their tackle in anticipation of a big day with bass, trout and sheephead, while a number of nimrods are polishing up their fouling pieces for a tramp through the savannas.

The Daily News hopes each and every one may have his cup full to overflowing and that January 1, 1909, may long be remembered for its sunshine and joy.

GOVE SHOP TO BE REBUILT.

City Council Gives The Big Contractor Privilege of Replacing Recently Burnt Shop.

CITIZENS PETITION TURNED DOWN.

When it became known that Contractor Gove desired to rebuild his work shop which was burned in the Sunday morning fire a petition was at once passed along by a few citizens in the vicinity of the site of the proposed building protesting to the mayor against the rebuilding of the shop.

When Mr. Gove went to the mayor for his permit to rebuild the mayor called attention to the law governing the case and said in the face of the protest and in consideration of the ordinance governing such cases that he would have to withhold his consent.

Mr. Gove carried his case to the city council, showing that other like buildings have been erected within the territory embraced by the fire ordinance. After due consideration of the matter upon motion of Councilman Smith the council authorized the construction of the building and the protest of the citizens was buried.

THE SOUTH MAKING WONDERFUL DEVELOPMENT.

James Bryce, Ambassador to Great Britain, Notes Wonderful Progress, Predicts Greater.

James Bryce, the United States Minister to Great Britain, dropped in upon the Southern Commercial Congress, as spectator, but, yielding to the clamor for a speech, he paid a glowing tribute to the wonderful push and spirit, which is making the South over anew.

"Since I came here, eighteen months ago," said Mr. Bryce, "I have twice visited the South. I can hardly express to you the contrast between what I personally witnessed twenty-seven years ago and the present conditions. Wherever I have been in the South I have been struck by the signs of activity, progress and development. I venture to congratulate you upon what is being done, and to say that still greater prospects are before you."

Another speaker was Dr. J. A. Bonsteel, of the United States Bureau of Soils. Dr. Bonsteel predicted that the next census will show that the annual value of the farm products of the South will be double what it is now—which will be in excess of two billion dollars.

St. Mary's Church.

Tomorrow being New Year's Day (Festival of the Circumcision) Holy Communion will be celebrated at 9:30. Afternoon Tea will be served in the rectory from 3 to 5 p. m. by the ladies of the Choir Guild for the benefit of the choir.

HOLLY HILL

HOLLY HILL, Dec. 31.—Mrs. Harri-man and grandchildren have returned to Jacksonville.

J. W. English spent Christmas with his family, coming from New Smyrna. L. Cave has gone to Titusville for a few weeks.

Mrs. Dan Clifton and children were at Rockledge from Saturday until Monday. Mrs. W. H. Edmondson had charge of the Sunday School entertainment given on Monday evening and was ably assisted by Mrs. Peterson. A very enjoyable program was well carried out and much enjoyed. Among others from Daytona were Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Rutter.

Mrs. Chas. Harris left Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Winthrop, at Tallahassee, and expects to be away two weeks. Mrs. Davenport and son, Alvin, are expected to arrive about Saturday to spend the winter in their pretty bungalow. We shall all gladly welcome them.

T. H. Cave, Jr., and family came from Jacksonville to spend Christmas with his parents. They returned Sunday.

The old adage reads "It is better to be born lucky than rich." Tom Wetherell should come in that category, as he was the fortunate winner of the fine range given away by the Gruber-Morris Co., and his little daughter, Harriet, is the proud owner of the large doll lately displayed in the McFadden window.

Miss Milburn, for several years our primary teacher, was married on Christmas day to D. E. Lyon, of Port Orange. We extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple and wish them much happiness. Mrs. Lyon will continue to teach through the rest of the term, greatly to the satisfaction of our little people and their parents.

We have to chronicle the marriage of another of our Holly Hill girls, Myrtle Crews, who was formerly at school here. Mr. Edmondson officiated, having driven to Tomoka on Thursday where the knot was tied uniting W. Mitchell Hunter and Miss Myrtle Crews in matrimony. We wish them long life and happiness.

Hankins says:

Most folks are a little "fussy" over the choice of a Tooth brush.

This is perfectly natural, for no two persons think exactly alike. Just remember that we have an assortment of brushes that will stand inspection—no matter how "fussy" you are.

THE NORTH SWEEP BY BLIZZARD.

Mercury Is 20° Below and Traffic Is Interrupted—Snow Is Still Falling.

ONE DEATH REPORTED SO FAR.

[By United Press.]

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 31.—One of the worst blizzards that ever visited the Northwest is raging today, and many railroad trains between this city and the Idaho line are stalled by the snow. The mercury this morning dropped to 20 below zero, and so far one death has been reported. The snow is still falling in all the States along the border.

Stork Makes Christmas Gift.

Peter Ladas, proprietor of the Ladas fruit store, is now the proud father of two boys, Mrs. Ladas having presented him with another son Christmas night. Mr. Ladas was, naturally, much pleased, if not surprised, with this Christmas present, and says that it encourages him to hope that at some time in the future he will be able to master the business and political situation in Daytona without foreign assistance.

PRESIDENT ASKS AID FOR ITALIAN SUFFERERS.

Sends Urgent Message to Congress Asking For Appropriation For Immediate Relief.

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—It was learned from authoritative sources today that the President will send an urgent message to Congress as soon as assembled asking for a liberal appropriation for the benefit of the Italian earthquake victims.

THE CITY FATHERS IN CALLED SESSION.

No Sale of Equus Assinus—Discharge of Street Gang Rescinded.

At a special meeting of the City Council held Wednesday afternoon the action taken at previous meetings in regard to issuance of special city certificates, and the sale of mules and discharge of street gang was rescinded, and the Mayor was authorized to sign a building permit for S. H. Gove, allowing him to re-build his wood-working establishment on his lot, on Volusia avenue, where his building was recently destroyed by fire. F. T. Peck's bond as Treasurer was also accepted and placed on file, and a bill from W. M. Shaffner amounting to $20 was allowed.

OFF AGAIN, IS IT FINNIGAN?

Due to Reported Indifference of Many Who Were Thought to Be Interested.

IF GONE NOW, GONE FOREVER.

It seems now that those enthusiasts who met two nights ago at the Florida East Coast Automobile Association club house on the beach and in good faith announced a four days' March race meeting for Daytona Beach, reckoned without their hosts.

Subsequent developments tend to confirm the present opinion that the announcement was premature, unwarranted by the conditions as discovered when a real show-down of the color of coin was demanded.

When the solicitors started around with the hat instead of a glad hand-shake, a welcome howdy-do and "about how much do you want from me?" they found themselves running constantly into wet blankets and the faster they walked the colder grew their feet? So many seemed to be afflicted with heart trouble the so solicitors were afraid to press for such sums as would be necessary to justify the demands of a meet.

That previous races have been worth infinitely more to Daytona than Daytona ever put in for them, in advertising, in bringing people here, in focusing the eyes of the world on this city, no one who is thoroughly conversant with the situation will dispute; that the proposed March meet and races for the years to come would be of inestimable worth to Daytona is conceded by those who look beyond the surface of things. Then why not?

Probably this is it: Let the other fellow put up for it. It is a good thing for the fellow's purse who stays out, if the other fellow will put up the stake and share the benefits.

Mr. Merchant Man, Mr. Hotel Man, Mr. Bridge Man, Mr. Everybody, don't figure the very dollar and cent you would expect to get in return for a contribution you might make but figure what it will be worth to Daytona and the Daytona section now and hereafter and how much you might share in the general prosperity and give in accordance.

If the race goes by default this year it is the opinion of many that it will see the finish of races on Daytona beach.

There will be a final meeting this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock of the committee appointed to raise funds and conclude arrangements and at this writing, 1:00 p. m., the outlook is by no means luminous.

Saturday's Daily News will contain the list of contributors to the proposed meet so that all interested—and nearly every man, woman and child in Daytona are more or less interested—may know who really pulled for a meeting and how much they were interested.

135,000 DEAD RESULT EARTHQUAKE.

Little Hope For American, French, English and German Residents in Stricken Territory.

ITALIAN PARLIAMENT IS CALLED.

[By United Press.]

ROME, Dec. 31.—Naval officers now at Messina estimate the dead of that city today at 135,000, and the total deaths of the stricken district at 175,000. They don't state on what facts they base this estimate.

Parliament will meet in extra session as soon as the king returns from the scene of the disaster, to frame special measures bearing upon the relief of the sufferers.

The Italian naval commander at Messina telegraphed this afternoon that unless word was heard from Armenian, French, English and German residents within the next few hours no hopes could be entertained for their safety.

HOW FLORIDA FRUITS SELL IN NEW YORK.

The Latest Market Reports On Florida Fruits and Vegetables—Outlook Improving.

A recent market letter from a prominent New York commission house says: Receipts of fruits and vegetables light and stronger prices prevail. Usually, a dullness after Christmas trade is over with, but we see no reason for prices to go lower now.

Beans—$2 to $3.50 per basket; wax, $3 to $4.50.

Peas—Market practically bare, $6 per basket.

Cukes—Scarce, $3 to $4 per basket.

Lettuce—Receipts light, $2 to $3 per basket. Fancy lettuce in demand.

Tomatoes—Receipts light, $1.75 to $2.75. Really fancy would do $4.

Egg Plant—Scarce, $3 to $4 per crate.

Peppers—Coming strong, and market weaker. Carries, $3.50 to $4.50; crates, $4 to $4.50.

Fruit conditions only fair, and not satisfactory from growers standpoint.

The Christmas trade has been supplied, but we hardly think there will be any depression after Christmas, and no more glut this season as a large percentage of the crop has been shipped.

Grapefruit—Duller and lower; prices around $2.50 for Indian rivers. Large percentage being sold at $1 to $2 per box.

Oranges—$1.75 for good fruit. We advise shipping oranges and holding back grapefruit.

Tangerines—In fair demand at $2 to $4.

A reception will be held tomorrow night from 7 to 9 at the Congregational church.

SEABREEZE, Dec. 31—A cement sidewalk is being laid on the west side of Grandview avenue from Ocean boulevard to the Country club house and golf grounds, and a force of men, under the direction of Theo. Rauschenberg, contractor, has the work well in hand.
Twenty-four hundred feet will be laid.
Much of the new scenery which is to replace the old at the Wilman opera house bears the sign-manual of J. Ralph Wilcox, artist. It is all bright Florida landscape and will be appreciated by the theatre-goers, who will also appreciate the fact that Manager Burgman is working to attract and hold the patronage of the amusement-loving people of the several communities.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Hatch drove to DeLand in their auto yesterday and spent several hours in that college town, where Mr. Hatch has considerable property interests.
Mrs. H. T. Phillips and charming daughter, Miss Nellie Phillips, arrived from Atlanta yesterday afternoon and will spend the winter with Miss Russell Mrs. Phillips and Miss Nellie have spent several winters at Seabreeze and are cordially welcomed back again. They report the weather in Atlanta cold, wet and disagreeable the past month.

Mr. Williams and daughter, Miss Williams, of Missouri, a Vassar College student, who were guests at The Mayfield several days, left on the northbound train several days since.
Mrs. Julia Martin spent part of the day at her home on Ocean boulevard and calling on friends yesterday.
Mrs. G. Hesser arrived from Missouri yesterday afternoon and will spend the winter at her vine-clad home on Valley street. She received a warm welcome from her many friends.

Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Dec. 31—Mrs.
Lou R. Hull and daughter, Miss Lurene, arrived Tuesday afternoon, and will spend the winter at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Reed. Mrs. Hull is Mr. Reed's sister, and with her daughter usually spends part of the season here

Capt. Brown, owner of the Minnie-Lou, has just received a 20-horsepower engine for his launch which tows the Minnie-Lou. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will cruise around in Halifax waters a while, going as far north as St. Augustine before starting for Miami.

Mrs. E. G. Bowne, a niece of Dr. Garfield, arrived from Boston, and will spend the winter with her relatives.
Dr. and Mrs. Garfield will move into their new home tomorrow.

J. C. Butler, the real estate man, yesterday leased Hawk's Villa, one of the J. G. Brown cottages on the corner of Harvey and Ocean avenues, to W. H.
Croft, of Peckskill, N. Y. Mr. Croft brought his automobile along with him.
Quarterly meeting convenes at the Seabreeze avenue M. E. Church tonight.

The afternoon train buses were crowded with tourists yesterday, and the real estate men got busy in a hurry
W. B. Reed narrowly escaped a serious injury in a fall from his wheel several days ago. He was driving along at a good speed, when the end of a plank flew up just as his front wheel touched it. He fell and received a sharp blow on the forehead, the wound from which is not yet quite healed. Mr. Banks, who has not yet recovered from his sprained back, ventured the opinion that if they were not killed they would live until spring.

Tonight at Mrs. Emma A. Freeman's pretty home on the Halifax, the following congenial party of friends will watch the old year out, and welcome the new year in: Mr. and Mrs. Waterson and niece, Miss Alloway, Mr. and Mrs.
Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Willson, Mr.
and Mr. Pollard and Miss Mable Wakefield. Tennyson's beautiful poem, "The Death of the Old Year," will be read.
A midnight luncheon will be partaken of so that they may carry out the old superstition that to be eating and drinking as the old year dies ensures plenty for the coming year. Cards will be played during the early hours of the evening.

Marsh Music.
The politician caught with the goods was counseled by his friends to stay and face the music.
For an instant he listened to the clamor of denunciation.
"Great Scott," he exclaimed impatiently, "do you call that music?"
A moment later he was out of hearing.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Few things are impossible in themselves. It is not so much means as perseverance that is wanting to bring them to a successful issue.—Rochester canad.

Exclusive to the Last.
An instance of exclusiveness maintained under difficulties is reported from the ladies' cabin of an Atlantic liner. All were sick except one lady and a cat, which wandered uneasily about. The lady ventured to stroke the cat, remarking "Poor pussy." The cat was inclined to respond and elevated its tail in token of good will, when from a neighboring berth came in choking tones the words, "Excuse me, that is a private cat!"—Argonaut.

That Family Skeleton.
Mrs. Whistler—Tell me, Mary, why it is that you always cry so when papa sends you to bed in the dark when you are naughty? There's no such things as ghosts, and the dark doesn't hurt you, does it? Little Mary—No, mamma, but I'm afraid of that skeleton Mrs.
Jones says we got in our closet.—Baltimore American.

CARRIAGE ADDRESS
HEN'S AIRPLANE
 BY CARLE HOOKER EATON

833 copies already "I want to see Little Bits of what I love.
 And to be sure I'll be
 Just as it always has
 And I'll be sure to be
 The favorite, new and true.
 Then airplane men just the chance
 To get into the game"

"An unswerving will 'I'll be
 If I have any love,
 And I'll be sure to be
 The favorite, new and true.
 Then airplane men just the chance
 To get into the game"

The center of the Wrights.
 And to be sure I'll be
 Just as it always has
 And I'll be sure to be
 The favorite, new and true.
 Then airplane men just the chance
 To get into the game"

Said Ben: "The boys all either top,
 And so do you give high.
 Ben came back in the data, boys.
 Ben told me to get on my feet
 And I'll be sure to be
 The favorite, new and true.
 Then airplane men just the chance
 To get into the game"

The birds, of course, was left before
 And so do you give high.
 Ben came back in the data, boys.
 Ben told me to get on my feet
 And I'll be sure to be
 The favorite, new and true.
 Then airplane men just the chance
 To get into the game"

"The only paper in the South
 That's left by newspaper."
 All but a word and chain.
 All but a word and chain.
 "If you can be your man
 You'll have the chain and color checked
 And with a bit to be sure"

The day that he was looked to try A word of hope and new
 Said Ben to me for his day
 And give advice to Ben.
 "I'll be sure to be
 The favorite, new and true.
 Then airplane men just the chance
 To get into the game"

Dear Jack, the work, seemed very large.
 And so do you give high.
 Ben came back in the data, boys.
 Ben told me to get on my feet
 And I'll be sure to be
 The favorite, new and true.
 Then airplane men just the chance
 To get into the game"

When Ben saw of the papers spread
 He was first paper, some spread
 And I'll be sure to be
 The favorite, new and true.
 Then airplane men just the chance
 To get into the game"

It got a sudden spread head.
 A day spreading head.
 Then report the change from a church
 Like letters from a church
 And so do you give high.
 Ben came back in the data, boys.
 Ben told me to get on my feet
 And I'll be sure to be
 The favorite, new and true.

1909
CARRIERS ADDRESS
HENS AEROPLANE
BY EARLE HOOKER EATON
COPYRIGHT 1909 BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

HE carrier sighed: "I want to soar
Like folks of whom I've heard.
I want to fly from door to door
Just like a chippy bird.
My legs is wore out to the knees;
I'm spavined, sore and lame.
These arrowplanes seem just the cheese.
I'll get into the game."

"An arrownaught is what I'll be
If I have any luck,
And folks will rubber up at me
And brag: 'I know that duck!
We chummed together, me an' Hen,
An' made things hum an' whiz.
He wasn't much to look at then;
But, Moses, how he's riz!'"

The carrier studied up the Wrights,
And in his own machine
He soon was making longer flights
Than young Darius Green.
He bought a mule, and speedy Jack,
Induced by spur and blows,
Would gallop with it on its back
Until it slowly rose.

Said Hen: "She beats all other toys,
And, as she goes quite high,
Her name shall be the Ante, boys,
Her limit but the sky.
At first I played a penny game;
But, lucky stars be praised,
No feller now disputes my claim—
The Ante can be raised!"

The mule, of course, was left below
On each ascension day,
And as the craft would upward go
He'd bray as if to say:
"That start would give a mule a fit.
Poor Hen is such a dunce.
I'd raise the Ante quite a bit
If I could kick her once!"

"The only paper on the earth That's left by arrowplane!"
That ad," said Hen, "is surely worth
At least a watch and chain."
The editor the bargain clinched:
"If you can fly your route
You'll have the chain and ticker cinched
And win a fob to boot!"

The day that he was booked to try
A crowd of boys and men
Came out to see the Ante fly
And give advice to Hen.
"You'd better wear pneumatic pants!"
"Pick out a spot that's soft!"
"Aw, give the chippy bird a chance!"
The joyous jokers scoffed.

Poor Jack, the mule, caused many flings.
Said one, amid the jeers,
"I knowed a arrowplane had WINGS,
But this yere one flaps EARS!"
Another yelled with might and main:
"Please give your kind attention.
Here's Hen and his great muleplane.
They'll make a jackasscension!"

When Hen flew off, the jokers gasped
And gave a rousing cheer
As his first paper, spiral shaped,
Hit Bilkins in the ear.
Another paper sped to Glenn,
Who cried, "Ain't she a daisy?"
A third flew down to Jones, and then
The Ante went plumb crazy.

It gave a sudden upward lurch,
A sky invading booster,
Then ripped the shingles from a church
Like feathers from a rooster.
Once more it made a skyward bound,
As agile as a flea,
Then turned a flipflop toward the ground
And hung Hen on a tree!"

Up sped a boy who saw him caught.
"He's lit, by jing, he's lit!
Say, Hen, you ain't no arrownaught;
You're just an arrownit!"
Said Hen: "This gives a man a pain!
Come take me off my perch.
I should have tried an arrowplane
That didn't go to church."

"The earth feels mighty good to me.
Come, Jack, old muleplane,
You did the trick; but, hully gee,
I won't go up again!
It ain't that I'm at all afraid.
I'm simply not a fool.
The paper must not be delayed—
I'll fly around by mule!"

The moral's easy to discern:
Make this your daily rule—
If flying is too hard to learn,
Why, get there on a mule!
And here's another rule, good friends,
To honor and obey—
The carrier New Year's greeting sends;
REMEMBER him today!

AMERICAN BATTLESHIPS MAY GIVE AID TO ITALY.

Navy and State Departments Considering Advisability of Offering Services.
(By United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The American battleship fleet which is now passing through the Red Sea will probably be sent to the scene of the earthquake disaster in Italy. Plans to this effect are being discussed between the heads of the Navy and the State departments and if entirely acceptable to the Italian government, orders to that effect will at once be issued.

(By United Press.)

MEDIA, Pa., Dec. 31.—In the murder trial of Mrs. Erb and her sister, Mrs. Catherine Beisel, charged with killing Capt. J. C. Erb, a wealthy politician, Constable Thomas Simpson testified that Mrs. Beisel told him after her arrest that she would deny the shooting.

Christian Church Service.

The services next Sunday at the Christian church will be conducted by Mrs. F. J. Langdon, president of the state board of the Christian women's board of missions. All interested in knowing what the Christian women of America are doing for home and foreign missions will do well to attend this service.

LOCAL ITEMS.

H. C. Gardiner is confined to his home on South Palmetto avenue by a slight illness.

The help of the Ivy Lane Inn and of the Palmetto House arrived on the evening train Wednesday.

Everybody takes an extra snooze in the house, when a Fireless Cooker is getting breakfast. See them at R. S. Maleys.

Dr. J. H. Pierson went up to St. Augustine, Wednesday, on business connected with the establishment in this city of a lodge of Elks.

No danger of fire in the house which has one of R. S. Maley's artistic fire screens on guard. They are a whole fire company.

Mrs. J. W. Packard, who has been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. S. W. O'Brien on Orange avenue, returned to her home at Cocoa Wednesday afternoon.

All copy for change of advertisements in the Daily News must be sent in not later than 3:00 o'clock the day preceding which the ad. is to appear.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud S. Smith and little son, who have been visiting with Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Smith, on Ridgewood avenue, departed today for Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Smith's headquarters while in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kindig have returned from Haines City and are occupying the Reynolds house on Cypress street, which they rented through the Norman S. Dayton estate agency, awaiting the vacancy of the cottage they recently purchased of A. P. Roberts on First avenue.

Did you meet that clean shaven Dude under a green Derby? Nothing short of a new process KEEN CUTTER SAFETY RAZOR turned him out. He is after a New Year's gift for the other fellow. R. S. Maley's is the beauty parlors for Razors.

have if she keeps, as now, abreast of the procession.
Thousands of visitors are pouring in upon Daytona, many of them for the first time; a bold front, a bright face, a cheery voice, a glad welcome, a generous spirit will help to win them as permanent guests.
And remember that the big auto race meet is to be pushed, and made the crowning achievement as an entertaining feature.
This is a mighty good time to turn over a new leaf.

PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE, Dec. 31.—Mr. Murphy has improved the looks of his home by setting out shade trees along each of his fronts.

Last Thursday (Christmas eve) afternoon was the church tea in Ridgewood hall. Mrs. Milburn was hostess, assisted by her two daughters.

On Christmas eve what might have been a fatal accident happened at the home of Sim Jackson, where they had a Christmas tree for their own and some friends' children. Mr. Jackson was Santa Claus and decorated with a lot of cotton to represent snow. In taking the presents from the tree the cotton caught fire and he was soon in a blaze, which was extinguished with the help of those present. He fortunately had a mask on, which saved his face. He was burned about the neck and hands, but is improving.

Christmas morning there was another accident on Ridgewood, in front of T. G. Smith's. Two gentlemen were riding on their wheels when the one in front stopped and the one behind ran into him. He was thrown from his wheel and broke a leg. Dr. Kestler, who lives near, bound it up, and Mrs. I. J. Wells took him to his home in Daytona.

J. A. Tedder has opened a grocery store in his building opposite the schoolhouse.

There was a quiet wedding Christmas afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milburn when their daughter, Maude, was joined in matrimony to D. E. Lyon, of Oswego, Ill. The young people left on the afternoon train.

Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie, of Lake Helen, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tedder, during the holidays.

Mrs. Lufberry and Mrs. DuBois went to Deland Monday in Mrs. Lufberry's automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howes and Mr. and Mrs. Will Howes visited their parents Christmas.

Mrs. Havens went to Deland Monday.

The first card party of the season was given in Ridgewood Hall Tuesday evening.

A number of porpoises were seen in the river this morning, playing around close to shore.

R. M. Cole, advertising man for Foster & Reynolds, is in the city today. Foster & Reynolds' office is now in shape for the season's business. P. G. Doty is the local manager and is stopping at The Gables.
